Winner – M&A, Italy

Rosario Zaccà is a partner in the Milan office of Gianni, Origoni, Grippo & Partners.

He specialises in corporate and commercial law, mergers and acquisitions and private equity, and has significant expertise in joint ventures and multi-jurisdictional transactions. Due to his strong experience in a broad range of corporate and M&A issues, he is frequently asked to represent some of the largest Italian and multinational companies and to handle complex transactions that require a sophisticated approach.

As a member of the firm's Chindia desk, Mr Zaccà has extensive experience in assisting Indian and Chinese companies in their activities in Italy, and Italian companies investing in China and India. He is also in charge of the management of the Milan office.

Mr Zaccà graduated with a degree in law from Catania University. He studied common law and the English legal system at City of London Polytechnic, and international law at the Academy of International Law in The Hague. Mr Zaccà's career has included four years in the firm's New York office and a semester with a City firm in London.

Mr Zaccà is a member of the Italian Bar Association and the International Bar Association, and is licensed to practise before the Italian Supreme Court.

What clients said

“Rosario is always attentive to right-sizing the teams and seniority for different projects. This is rare in Italy, where ‘one size fits all’ is a typical reaction.”

“His personal attitude and empathetic personality allow him to conduct tough business negotiations and achieve the right result.”
