

Gianni & Origoni appoints new Partners

Arrigo Arrigoni and Chiara Gianni are nominated

Rome, December 14, 2021 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni is pleased to announce the election of two new Non-Equity Partners: Arrigo Arrigoni (Energy and Infrastructure) and Chiara Gianni (Corporate/M&A).

Arrigo Arrigoni joined GOP in 2009 and has significant experience in the development, financing and acquisition of infrastructures and renewable energies projects, having assisted a number of sponsors and financiers in these sectors in connection with some of the most relevant and innovative energy and infrastructure deals (including bond and project bond issues) both in Italy and across Europe in the last few years.

Chiara Gianni joined GOP in 2008 and specialises in M&A, corporate and commercial law. She is instructed primarily in connection with acquisition transactions, including transfers of stock and businesses, drafting and negotiating joint ventures agreements, shareholders' agreements and other commercial agreements. She advises a wide number of domestic and multinational companies in significant acquisition and extraordinary matters, handling each phase of the transaction, from the strategic and preliminary steps up to the negotiation and drafting of contracts.

Antonio Auricchio, Co-Managing Partner of Gianni & Origoni states: "Following an unprecedented period of uncertainty due to the pandemic, we are particularly pleased to announce these new appointments. They not only restart our path towards enhancing our firm's resources, which we have always believed in, but they also represent in themselves a renewed source of energy and motivation for all of us."
