

GOP wins at the 2023 Legalcommunity IP & TMT Awards

The firm receives three awards

Milan, March 23, 2023– International law firm Gianni & Origoni won three awards at the 2023 Legalcommunity IP & TMT Awards.

The jury awarded excellences in the Italian legal market in the areas of intellectual property, telecommunications and media. The eleventh edition of the event saw the jury awards those excellences that during the year distinguished themselves the most in terms of reputation and activity.

Here are the motivations:

Lawyer of the year Art: Massimo Sterpi

Certainly among the most active lawyers on the Italian art scene, he has assisted clients in the photographic, archaeological and pictorial fields. In the last twelve months he has also managed to successfully conclude important proceedings for alleged plagiarism of works.

Lawyer of the year Media: Luca Rinaldi

This lawyer conducted a very important cross-border negotiation on behalf of a multinational media company. An attention to detail, technical knowledge of the reference market and a reactive approach are the strengths highlighted by the research.

Lawyer of the year Privacy: Stefano Mele

With over twenty years of experience, this professional establishes himself as one of the most renowned in the field of privacy and data protection. Thanks to his leadership, the firm's team has gained even more strength and representation in this market.

Law Firm of the year, Sport

The firm provided complex assistance in negotiating the use of image rights, a complexity linked above all to the new methods of distributing multimedia content. It is certainly among the most active teams on the national sports scene.
