

Luca dal Cerro joins Gianni & Origoni

The firm's Tax department grows with the arrival of this new partner, expert in international tax and revenue law

Milan, 12 January 2024 - International law firm Gianni & Origoni announces the hire of Luca dal Cerro, an expert in international tax and revenue law who will join the firm's Tax department as Partner.

Luca was hired from Legance, where he arrived in 2019 after fifteen years of experience gained first in the Tremonti Vitali Romagnoli Piccardi boutique firm, then at Linklaters. During his career, he has developed significant expertise in the tax structuring required for inbound and outbound investments and in advising domestic and international clients on all aspects of tax in complex transactions, including equity and debt capital markets transactions, syndicated loans, acquisition finance, real estate and M&A transactions, securitisations and structured finance.

Luca is a member of the International Fiscal Association (IFA) in Italy and sits at the "fiscal table" of Assoimmobiliare and of AIFI.

Fabio Chiarenza, Head of Gianni & Origoni's Tax department states: "We are very pleased with Luca's arrival. He is a professional of great value who will certainly contribute to strengthening our ability to offer high calibre assistance to clients."

Luca Dal Cerro added: "I am very happy to embark on this new adventure. Having had the opportunity to work with many Gianni & Origoni professionals in common deals and clients, joining the GOP team was the natural choice, also enabling me to offer an even more integrated service."
