

Gianni & Origoni is a winner at the 2024 Legalcommunity Litigation Awards

Milan, October 30, 2024 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni won several awards at the Legalcommunity Litigation Awards 2024, receiving the award for best team in “Antitrust, Public Enforcement,” while Antonio Auricchio was named “Lawyer of the Year, Real Estate.”

The evening, held in Milan, brought together lawyers active in the legal litigation market, both judicial and arbitration. The fifth edition of the event saw the awards given by the jury to the excellences that have distinguished themselves most in reputation and activity during the year.

And here are the motivations of the jury:

Law Firm of the Year Antitrust, Public Enforcement

The firm has assisted some of Italy's largest listed multinational clients in their competition disputes in Italy, one of the most significant being a case of greenwashing by an energy company.

Lawyer of the Year, Real Estate - Antonio Auricchio

This lawyer is a well-known name respected by both his colleagues and competitors. In real estate, he has successfully acted for major players in the industry in multi-million pound, high-profile litigation cases.
