

Gianni & Origoni is a two-time winner at the 2025

Legalcommunity Forty Under 40 Awards

Two lawyers won individual accolades

Milan, May 16, 2025 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni was a multi-winner at the 2025 Legalcommunity Forty under 40 Awards. Arrigo Arrigoni was named “Lawyer of the Year” while Martina Gasparri won the award for “Lawyer of the Year Environment”.

The ceremony, held in Milan, was an opportunity to celebrate the young excellences of the legal market active in various areas.

During this sixth edition the jury awarded those individual professionals under 40 and those teams that during the year have distinguished themselves most for their activity.

The jury motivated the awards as follows:

“Lawyer of the Year” - Arrigo Arrigoni

A prominent partner at the well-known Italian law firm, he has long been featured in the rankings of all major legal directories. His core business, in which he is considered a leading expert, is the energy and infrastructure sector, where he handles complex banking, debt capital markets, and M&A transactions.

“Lawyer of the Year Environmental” - Martina Gasparri

She has been practicing environmental law since 2016, providing both out-of-court and in-court assistance on matters related to the environmental impact of industrial facilities. Her work primarily focuses on air emissions, water discharges, waste management, and remediation procedures for contaminated sites.
