

Gianni & Origoni strengthens its Turin office with Marco Molineris

Marco joins as a Non-Equity Partner, further enhancing the Corporate/M&A practice

Turin, September 10, 2025 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni is pleased to announce the hire of Marco Molineris as a new Partner in its Turin office.

With extensive experience in extraordinary transactions gained at Italian boutique PedersoliGattai, Marco further strengthens Gianni & Origoni's presence in corporate and M&A matters at the Turin office. He specializes in corporate and commercial law and focuses on M&A and joint ventures across various industries, with a particular emphasis on infrastructure and energy. Marco regularly advises both domestic and international clients, including private equity and infrastructure funds, industrial companies (including listed ones), utilities, multi-utilities, family offices, and club deals. His work spans extraordinary transactions such as mergers, acquisitions, minority and majority investments, buy-outs, and turnaround operations, as well as the structuring and negotiation of corporate and commercial joint ventures, shareholders' agreements, and commercial contracts in general.

With Marco's arrival the firm's Turin office further strengthens its range of services, offering comprehensive and cross-disciplinary support to clients. His addition is fully aligned with the firm's strategic goal of consolidating its presence alongside the region's industrial and business communities, providing high-quality legal services grounded in a strong understanding of the local economic landscape.

Marco joins the firm with associates Giulia Rossi and Chiara Vitale.

With a team of 18 professionals, including 3 Partners, Gianni & Origoni's Turin office offers a comprehensive suite of specialised legal services - including restructuring, M&A, litigation, and environmental law - complemented by the full resources and expertise of the firm.

Luca Jeantet, Managing Partner of Gianni & Origoni's Turin office commented: "We are delighted to welcome Marco to our team. His experience and strategic outlook further reinforce our positioning in Turin and represent an important milestone in our growth path. We remain committed to our mission: to serve as a reference point in the region, with an approach based on proximity, expertise, and the excellence we offer to our clients."

Marco Molineris added: "I am honoured to be joining Gianni & Origoni, a firm that combines technical excellence, strategic vision, and a strong commitment to the local community. I fully embrace the firm's approach, which focuses on providing tailor-made legal advice, particularly to businesses and entrepreneurial families. I look forward to contributing actively to the growth of the Turin office, bringing my experience to support clients during this dynamic phase of market transformation and development."
