

Gianni & Origoni wins at the 2025 Legalcommunity Litigation Awards

The firm is nominated “Law Firm of the Year”

Milan, October 29, 2025 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni won a multi-winner at the 2025 Legalcommunity Litigation Awards, receiving the main award of the evening “Law Firm of the Year” as well as well as being named best team in “Insolvency”.

The evening, held in Milan, brought together lawyers active in the legal litigation market, both judicial and arbitration. The sixth edition of the event saw the awards given by the jury to the excellence that have distinguished themselves most in reputation and activity during the year.

And here are the motivations of the jury:

Law Firm of the Year - Gianni & Origoni

With a team of 80 professionals, including 13 partners, the Italian firm boasts one of the largest and most structured litigation departments in the domestic market. The practice covers all key specializations – from corporate litigation to insolvency, from antitrust to administrative disputes – thanks to the expertise of highly skilled litigators who, in their respective fields, have achieved outstanding results in handling complex, high-value cases.

Law Firm of the Year Insolvency - Gianni & Origoni

Strengthening its reputation in litigation and insolvency, the firm successfully handled a case of great economic and legal significance, standing out for its strategic approach and mastery of complex legal issues.
