

Gianni & Origoni is ranked in the 2026 Chambers & Partners Fintech guide

This is the first time the law firm has been included in the guide

Rome, December 4, 2025 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni is ranked in the 2026 Chambers FinTech Guide, published today by Chambers and Partners, the prestigious independent legal research directory which ranks leading law firms and lawyers across 200 jurisdictions around the world.

GOP, which has been featured in the legal directory's rankings for 19 years, is entering the FinTech Guide for the first time, achieving a Band 2 ranking for the Italian market.

Chambers FinTech has analysed legal excellence in over 40 countries, focusing on firms and professionals operating within the most innovative sectors: digital payments, blockchain, crypto-assets, cybersecurity, data protection, digital banking, Insurtech and smart contracts.

This guide has become one of the most authoritative international analyses of financial innovation, serving as a valuable reference tool globally for companies, scale-ups, investors, and operators.

Gianni & Origoni would like to thank its clients for the numerous positive comments received, which once again attest to the firm's excellence.
