

Gianni & Origoni forms partnership with Rampinelli Rota law firm

This strategic agreement strengthens legal services for businesses in the Brescia area

Milan, 9 October 2026 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni has entered into a partnership with Rampinelli Rota law firm to develop a new model of collaboration built on complementary expertise, a strong local presence and a shared vision of business legal advisory services.

Studio Rampinelli Rota is a law firm providing legal advice and litigation services, primarily in the areas of civil, commercial, corporate, healthcare and banking law. The firm stands out for its long-standing presence in the area, strong reputation and well-established professional and institutional relationships.

The partnership represents a further step in Gianni & Origoni's growth strategy, strengthening its presence in one of Italy's most dynamic manufacturing districts, which has a strong international outlook.

Through the partnership, GOP will provide local businesses with specialist expertise across all areas of business law, including competition, cybersecurity, energy and infrastructure, administrative and environmental law, trusts and wealth management, employment, and intellectual property. It will also bring its renowned capabilities in corporate law, M&A and corporate finance, complemented by Rampinelli Rota's established experience in civil, commercial, corporate, banking and healthcare law.

The agreement is based on close cooperation between the two firms, which, while maintaining full autonomy and complete independence, will work in a coordinated manner to develop business opportunities, manage complex projects and create value for their clients.
