Gianni & Origoni is a winner at the 2026 Legalcommunity Litigation Awards

Milan, October, 22 2026 – International law firm Gianni & Origoni has received two prestigious accolades at the 2026 Legalcommunity Litigation Awards, winning the award for "Law Firm of the Year – Administrative Litigation (TLC)", while Luca Jeantet was named "Lawyer of the Year – Insolvency".

The awards ceremony, held in Milan, provided an opportunity to celebrate excellence in the legal market in the field of litigation, both judicial and arbitral.

The seventh edition of the event saw the jury present awards to the firms and professionals who had particularly distinguished themselves over the past year in terms of reputation and professional activity.

And here are the motivations of the jury:

Law Firm of the Year – Administrative Litigation (TLC)
The firm played a leading role in major administrative litigation cases in the telecommunications sector, including advising a client in a complex dispute with a network infrastructure operator concerning a strategic project for the country's development, of national and international significance.

Lawyer of the Year – Insolvency: Luca Jeantet
One of Italy's leading experts in restructuring and insolvency matters, Luca Jeantet advised a distressed real estate fund on identifying alternatives to judicial liquidation, assisting it in commencing the negotiated settlement procedure for the resolution of the crisis and in applying for confirmation of protective measures. This was the first case in Italy in which this procedure was applied to an investment fund.
