Paola Tradati was awarded “Lawyer of the Year – Consultancy” at the Legalcommunity Labour Awards 2014.

The award was decided by a jury panel, made up of HR directors, general and legal counsel and managers, who reasoned: “The market appreciates both the expertise and experience in consultancy of the team and, in particular, of its head of practice. Paola Tradati follows developments and deals with labour issues in connection with the most significant M&A transactions and corporate reorganisations”.
