

GOP launches fundraiser to support hospitals at the forefront of the Coronavirus emergency

As part of the GOP Cares project, the firm starts fund raising for the Spallanzani hospital in Rome and the Sacco hospital in Milan

Rome, March 2020 - In a time of great difficulty for the whole country, GOP launches a fundraiser to make it easy to donate to two Italian hospitals at the forefront of the Coronavirus emergency, the “Lazzaro Spallanzani” hospital in Rome, and the “Luigi Sacco” hospital in Milan.

The Firm thus intends to respond to the appeals of doctors and nurses to supply the necessary tools to continue their work and to save other lives. The fund raising drive is part of the GOP Cares sustainability project launched by the Firm last year with a series of initiatives inspired by the international ESG (Environment, Social, Governance) principles.

Each person who wants to participate in the fundraiser can decide how much to donate and to which hospital to donate by following the instructions below. Contributions will funnel directly to each of the two hospitals.

GOP welcomes contributions from Clients and Friends and thanks them now for joining the fundraiser.
