

New environmental crimes: interpretation, application, their impact on companies

INVITATION

11th June 2015 | 3.00 pm - 5.30 pm

Gianni, Origoni, Grippo, Cappelli & Partners

Milan - Piazza Belgioioso, 2 | Rome - Via delle Quattro Fontane, 20

The seminar will address and analyse the new environmental crimes (so-called “eco-crimes”) introduced by the Criminal Code. In particular, the panel will focus on the interpretation and application of the regulations and will research the potential impact these crimes may have on a company’s structure as well as on its corporate responsibility.

3.00 pm Registration and welcome coffee

3.20 pm Introduction
Antonella Capria Partner, Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners

3.30 pm New environmental crimes: points of interpretation
Elisabetta Gardini Senior Associate, Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners
Luca Amicarelli Associate, Gianni Origoni Grippo Cappelli & Partners

4.30 pm Atmospheric emissions: a new scheme of responsibility?
Daniela Agazzi Italian Legal Asset Management, Italcementi S.p.A.

4.45 pm The extension of responsibility from crime to culpable conduct and corporate liability
Ciro Pellegrino Partner, Studio Legale Pellegrino

5.00 pm New environmental crimes: considerations, doubts and approaches from the internal company perspective
Raimondo Rinaldi Head of Legal Affairs, Esso Italiana S.r.l.
President, AIGI - Italian Company Lawyers Association

5.15 pm Q&A

Participation is free of charge. The seminar will be held in Italian. No translation services will be provided. The offices of Milan and Rome will be connected through videoconference.

R.S.V.P. Telephone: +39 06 47875389 E-mail: relazioniesterne@gop.it
When registering please specify from which office you will be attending.